

LEGAL DEMAND NOTICE

Date: August 24, 2026

I am writing to you on behalf of my client, [Employee Name], who is a current employee of [Company Name] with the address and employee ID number as follows:

[Employee Name]

[Employee ID Number]

[Date of Hire]

The purpose of this letter is to serve you with a formal Legal Demand Notice in relation to a serious breach of employment contract and workplace harassment.

On or around [Date], my client was subjected to repeated instances of verbal abuse, intimidation, and unwarranted criticism by their supervisor, [Supervisor's Name] (hereinafter referred to as "the Respondent"). The Respondent's behavior has created a hostile work environment that has resulted in significant emotional distress, anxiety, and decreased productivity for my client.

The Respondent's actions have included but are not limited to:

- * Repeatedly making derogatory comments about my client's appearance, performance, and personal life
- * Unfairly criticizing my client's work and denying them opportunities for advancement
- * Threatening my client with disciplinary action and termination without cause
- * Isolating my client from colleagues and excluding them from important meetings and discussions

My client has attempted to address these issues through internal reporting channels, including filing a complaint with HR, but their concerns have been consistently ignored or dismissed. As a result, my client feels that they have no choice but to seek external recourse.

We demand that you take the following actions within 14 days of receipt of this letter:

1. Provide written confirmation that you will conduct an immediate and thorough investigation into these allegations
2. Take disciplinary action against the Respondent, including but not limited to a formal warning, suspension, or termination, depending on the findings of the investigation

3. Implement measures to prevent future incidents of workplace harassment, including but not limited to training for all employees and supervisors on workplace harassment policies and procedures

4. Provide my client with a written apology and a guarantee that they will be treated with respect and dignity in the workplace going forward

Failure to comply with these demands within the specified timeframe may result in further action, including but not limited to filing a lawsuit against you and [Company Name] for damages.

Please confirm in writing your intention to comply with these demands. If we do not receive a satisfactory response, we will assume that you have chosen not to take these allegations seriously and will proceed accordingly.

Sincerely,
