

LEGAL DEMAND NOTICE

Date: August 24, 2026

I am writing to you on behalf of my client, [Employee's Name], who is a current employee of [Company Name] with the position of [Employee's Position]. On [Date], my client was subjected to severe and repeated sexual harassment by their supervisor, [Supervisor's Name], in the workplace.

The harassment took the form of unwelcome advances, suggestive comments, and physical contact. Despite my client's repeated requests for an end to this behavior, it has continued unabated. The most recent incident occurred on [Date] when [describe the specific incident]. This behavior is a clear breach of the company's code of conduct and constitutes a serious violation of [Employee's Name]'s rights under the Occupational Health and Safety Act (OHSA) and the Canadian Human Rights Code.

My client has suffered significant emotional distress, anxiety, and depression as a direct result of this harassment. They have also experienced a decline in their performance at work due to the stress and trauma caused by this behavior. My client is entitled to compensation for these losses under the Employment Standards Act (ESA) and the Human Rights Code.

We demand that you take immediate action to address this situation, including but not limited to:

1. Conducting a thorough investigation into the allegations of sexual harassment;
2. Taking disciplinary action against [Supervisor's Name], up to and including termination of employment;
3. Providing my client with a safe and respectful work environment;
4. Offering my client compensation for their losses under the ESA and the Human Rights Code, which includes but is not limited to:

- * Back pay for all time worked while subjected to harassment;
- * Compensation for emotional distress and anxiety;
- * Reimbursement of medical expenses related to the harassment;
- * Reasonable notice period in accordance with the ESA.

We require a response from you within 14 days of receipt of this letter, outlining the actions you will take to address this situation. If we do not receive a satisfactory response, we will be forced to explore further action, including but not limited to filing a complaint with the Ontario Human Rights Tribunal and seeking damages in a court of law.

Please confirm in writing that you have received this letter and indicate your intention to comply with our demands.

Sincerely,
