

LEGAL DEMAND NOTICE

Date: August 24, 2026

TO THE EMPLOYER OF [COMPANY NAME]

You are hereby put in default for your failure to constitute an Internal Complaints Committee as mandated by Section 4 of the [Act/Regulation Name] and further, for your non-compliance with the provisions of Section 26(1)(a) thereof.

It is brought to your attention that despite repeated requests and notifications, you have failed to establish a formal mechanism for addressing workplace grievances and complaints. This omission constitutes a clear breach of your statutory obligations under the [Act/Regulation Name].

Pursuant to Section 4 of the Act, it is your duty as an employer to constitute an Internal Complaints Committee, which shall provide a fair, impartial, and confidential platform for employees to report and redress grievances. Your failure to do so has resulted in a lack of transparency, accountability, and protection for your employees.

Furthermore, under Section 26(1)(a) of the Act, you are liable for non-compliance with the provisions of this section, which specifically requires employers to establish an Internal Complaints Committee within [specific timeframe]. Your failure to meet this deadline has resulted in a breach of your statutory obligations and constitutes a serious offense.

You are hereby required to take immediate action to rectify this situation by:

1. Establishing an Internal Complaints Committee as mandated by Section 4 of the Act;
2. Providing clear guidelines and procedures for the operation of the committee; and
3. Ensuring that all employees have access to the committee without fear or reprisal.

You are further required to provide a written confirmation of your compliance with these directives within [specific timeframe]. Failure to comply with this notice may result in further action, including but not limited to, filing a complaint with the relevant authorities and seeking damages for non-compliance.

You are advised to seek immediate legal counsel to ensure that you take all necessary steps to rectify this situation and avoid any further liability.

Sincerely,
