

LEGAL DEMAND NOTICE

Date: August 24, 2026

TO THE EMPLOYER OF [COMPANY NAME]

Pursuant to Section 4 of the [Act Name], it is hereby notified that you are in breach of your statutory obligations as an employer by failing to constitute an Internal Complaints Committee within your organization.

Despite being required under law, no such committee has been established, thereby denying the employee the right to a formal and fair process for addressing grievances and complaints. This failure constitutes a clear non-compliance with the provisions of Section 4 of the Act.

Furthermore, it is alleged that the employee has been subjected to harassment by your representative in the workplace, which is a serious breach of the employer's obligations under Section 26(1)(a) of the Act. The lack of an Internal Complaints Committee has rendered you liable for non-compliance with this provision, as the employee is unable to seek redress through the established internal mechanism.

The employee demands that immediate action be taken to rectify this situation by establishing a functioning Internal Complaints Committee within the next [timeframe, e.g., 14 days]. Failure to comply with this demand will result in further action being taken, including but not limited to, filing a complaint with the relevant authorities and seeking damages for the harm caused.

You are hereby required to respond to this notice within [timeframe, e.g., 7 days] and provide a written assurance regarding the establishment of the Internal Complaints Committee. Failure to do so will be deemed an admission of liability and will precipitate further action as necessary.

Please take immediate action to address this situation and ensure compliance with the provisions of the Act.

Sincerely,
