Subject: Formal Demand for Return of Security Deposit

Sir/Madam,

I am writing to formally demand the resolution of the following matter based on my statutory rights as a tenant:

Under the Maharashtra Rent Control Act, 1999, Section 18(2), a landlord cannot arbitrarily withhold a security deposit beyond 30 days of lease termination unless there are unpaid dues or severe damages to the property. Since you have been renting your property for more than 30 days, and your landlord is refusing to return your Rs. 33,750 security deposit, you can take the following steps: 1. Write to your landlord: Request them to return your security deposit within 30 days of lease termination. 2. File a complaint: If your landlord fails to respond or return the deposit, you can file a complaint with the local Rent Control Authority or the District Consumer Disputes Redressal Forum (DCDRF) in Maharashtra. Please note that you should also keep records of all correspondence and communication with your landlord regarding the security deposit.

You are hereby called upon to rectify this issue and remit the requested amount within 15 days of receiving this notice. Failure to comply will leave me with no choice but to initiate appropriate legal proceedings against you in the competent courts of Panvel, Maharashtra, entirely at your risk, cost, and consequence.

Sincerely,

Parth Singh

Panvel, Maharashtra
